

Annual Surgeon Educators' Day

Friday 20 May 2016
The Royal College of Surgeons, London

The Surgeon Educators' Day will bring together surgeon educators to share best practice and to discuss the current issues and trends relating to education and training. We will be exploring the themes of technology enhanced learning, improving surgical training, creating an open and honest learning culture, and developing personal and professional skills.

Programme

The conference will combine presentations and discussions on a range of subjects including:

- Keynote lecture - HEE support for surgical training
- Developing personal and professional Skills
 - Celebrating failure – is it achievable in the NHS?
 - Developing emotional resilience
- Improving surgical training
 - The future shape of surgical training
- How can we attract trainees into surgery?
- Surgeon Educator awards and posters
- Early evening reception (drinks and canapés)

Speakers and chairs

A number of high profile speakers including

- Mr Ian Eardley, Vice President, RCS
- Mr David Wilkinson, Lead Dean for Surgery, Yorkshire & Humber Deanery
- Professor Trudi Roberts, President of Association for Medical Education in Europe (AMEE)

Training and Assessment in the Clinical Environment (TrACE)

On Thursday 19 May 2016, we are holding a TrACE course for clinical and educational supervisors, with a discounted rate for delegates of the Annual Surgeon Educator's Day.

Places are limited – reserve yours today

Further details: www.rcseng.ac.uk/surgeoneducatorsday

The Royal College of Surgeons of England

35-43 Lincoln's Inn Fields

London WC2A 3PE

T: 020 7869 6300

E: education@rcseng.ac.uk

Registered Charity No. 212808