

TRAINING UPDATE

SAC News

- New Paediatric Surgery curriculum along with Multi Consultant Report (MCR) to be launched in August 2021.
- Pilot Paediatric Surgical run-through training to start in 2021 via current Core Surgical Training National selection.
- Change to FRCS Part 1 - two single best answer papers.
- FRCS Part 2 in March 2021 without patients and instead two clinical scenarios.
- ST3 National Selection 2021 likely to be based on Self-Assessment Form and virtual interview (3 'stations' - total 30min)

Meetings 2020

BAPS | British Association of
Paediatric Surgeons

2020 Virtual Winter Meeting
27th November 2020 13:30-15:30 GMT
Leadership and Challenges

COLONEL NIGEL TAI

Consultant trauma and vascular surgeon at Barts Health NHS Trust and UK Defence Medical Service Served at Camp Bastion hospital, Helmand province, Afghanistan.

DR VIN DIWAKAR

Regional Medical Director, NHS England (London Region)
He is a practising paediatrician. Vin provides clinical leadership to the city's health system, focusing on delivering the NHS's national and regional strategies.

PROFESSOR KOKILA LAKHOO

Professor Kokila Lakhoo is a consultant paediatric surgeon at the Children's Hospital in Oxford and the University of Oxford. She is the president of Global Initiative for Children's Surgery (GICS) that has followed on from the Lancet Commission.

MISS SONIA BASSON

Consultant in Paediatric Surgery at the Royal Manchester Children's Hospital and co-lead for education in the BAPS UK Paediatric Colorectal Group.

Register at www.baps.org.uk Free for Members

National Training Day

- 11th December 2020
- Virtual (London)

Work in Progress

ASiT:

- Planning ASiT Paediatric Surgery course for medical students
- Promoting Paediatric Surgery to students surgical societies

TriPS webpage:

- Ongoing work with BAPS to improve the structure of the webpage, navigation and to provide all trainees with up to date content.

Contact us

tripsrepuk@gmail.com
@tripsrepuk